FLOOR DEBATE

February 28, 2003 LR 11

sovereign lands can expand.

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute. One minute.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: So they can buy parcels. I understand we might negotiate in such a way, theoretically, that they couldn't do that under the compact, but in other states they have bought additional land and exercised their sovereignty over it. And our negotiations must be in good faith, and I respectfully suggest that good faith means that our Native American citizens ought to have the same rights that Native American citizens have in other jurisdictions. In other words, as with everything else, the standard has been set. What constitutes a good faith compact for Native Americans will be judged by the compacts in other jurisdictions. And I want to just throw that out, and then we can...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: ...further discuss it if we need to. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Brashear and Senator Schrock. Mr. Speaker, you're recognized.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Mr. President. Just to advise the body that the filer of the motion, which was to be taken up at 11:00, has asked that we not take the motion up. And so we will continue on this bill rather than moving at 11:00 to LB 554.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Speaker Bromm. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I first want to agree with what Senator Schrock said about the World-Herald. In the past, I've brought bills to legalize sports betting, and the World-Herald piously editorialized against that. Yet they printed what was known as the latest line, meaning the point spread. And they like to say it's merely news or for informational purposes, but there is no athletic event which reckons the score in increments of one-half point. So if a football team were favored by 3 and 1/2 points
